

Community Advisory Committee Yolo County Special Education Local Plan Area

February 1, 2010

To: Agency Representatives
From: Camille Giometti-May, Asst. Superintendent SELPA
RE: March 11, 2010 Yolo County Transition Fair

In collaboration with Woodland Community College, the Yolo County SELPA, with much enthusiasm, would greatly appreciate your participation on March 11th at the Transition Fair. Sharing information on post secondary transition and employment is vital to the students of Yolo County SELPA. Your agency's participation as a valued partner offers a critical role in transition to our families and students.

A booth from 4-7 PM on March 11, 2010, with an hour prior for set-up, has been reserved for you at Woodland Community College, 2300 E. Gibson Rd., Community Room, Building 800, Woodland, CA 95776. There is no fee for parking and no cost to attend.

If you have worked with us in past years, you will recall that we asked each participant to bring plenty of brochures, pictures and any helpful information to be displayed and given out.

Your participation is greatly appreciated, please contact Vinceena Irgens at: vinceena.irgens@ycoe.org, Phone: 530-668-3786 or FAX 530-668-3827 to confirm your agency's representation and any questions you may have.

Sincerely,

Camille Giometti-May, Ph.D.

The 14th ANNUAL TRANSITION FAIR
Sponsored by Woodland Community College and Yolo SELPA

Who is invited: ALL Families with Students Receiving Special Education Services
 ALL Special Education Staff
 ALL Business and Community Members

Families have the opportunity to begin planning for their student's transition to adult living. Resources and agencies for life planning will be available to you. It is time to make those connections, meet helpful individuals from various agencies, and gather information. Some of the agencies that may be represented at the Transition Fair are:

- Vocational Agencies
- Residential and Supportive Living Options
- Community Colleges
- Alta Regional Center
- PRIDE Industries
- Alternative Recreation
- Regional Transit
- Social Services

- Browse the information booths, obtain materials, and meet agency representatives.
- Listen to guest speakers and/or representatives give a brief review of their services.
- Mingle with agency representatives. Students are welcomed and encouraged to attend.

Thursday, March 11, 2010, Time: 4:00 – 7:00 PM
Woodland Community College, Community Room, Building 800
2300 E. Gibson Road
Woodland, CA
